As the President of Changepreneurs, her passion for advocating for people from multicultural communities, aged care, women, and youth is evident in her work, particularly in her role as a commissioner and mentor to young CALD and African Australian women.

Abiola holds Undergraduate and Postgraduate qualifications in Mathematics, Nursing, Gerontology, Mental health and information systems.

She founded Changepreneurs, a not-for-profit organisation that mentors young women of colour through education and outreach to achieve their career goals. She aspires to lead with a culture of excellence and compassion for the community.

She served as a Commissioner on the Victorian Multicultural Commission from 2021-2023. As an experienced director, she is currently on the board of the Ethnic Communities Council of Victoria and NWMPHN.

As a lifelong learner and a Rotarian, Abiola continues to participate and volunteer in different multicultural initiatives, events, and programs that promote social cohesion and peace in the community, a winner of many awards, including the Spirit of Victoria University Alumni Award in 2021 and a Paul Harris Fellow.

Rotary SAFE Families and Changepreneurs have a formal working relationship since 2022.
